These Are London's Most Luxurious New Developments

Your new home awaits...

By Alexia Jones | 19 May 19

Promoted Post | Contains affiliate links | Ad Feature

Looking for somewhere to call home in the capital? If so there are countless exciting projects underway in London offering the very most incredible residences. But world-class amenities, too. From Chelsea to Canada Water, these are some of the most luxurious London developments...

These Are London's Most Luxurious New Developments

Allen House, Kensington

Luxurious this summer is Allen House, a magnificent Edwardian mansion block comprising 67 brand new homes. The development will have a spectacular private dining room, a 24-hour concierge service and a residents' gym. Also, residents will have access to a London Arcadia concierge service, allowing them to make reservations at any restaurant within the historic Kensington Palace Gardens. allenhouse.co.uk

6 Baker Lane, Belgravia

Dating back to 1820, this Grade II listed building is currently undergoing meticulous restoration and will soon be home to 10 exclusive new homes, all of whom host of incredible amenities including a gym, swimming pool, spa, cinema and residents' lounge. The development is being overseen by world-class contemporary specialist, Beaumont Dyer. bakerlane.com

Marylebone Square

Introducing another London's latest stunning new build, Marylebone Square. This chicest canal address encompasses gorgeous apartments, community spaces, a private dining room and a residents' lounge with a private courtyard. Which is to its liking? marylebonesquare.com

The Hayden, Aldgate

The towering new development is one of the best you can expect to find in the City of London. Comprising 187 luxury residences, it's complete with a range of incredible amenities, including a residents' lounge, gym, cinema and a rooftop pool. Top it off with breathtaking views and you've got a truly enviable residence. hayd.london.co.uk

The Dockfen, Albert Embankment, London

Recently launched by Australian developer Trivid, the glorious riverside development is home to 1,000 new homes, a 4-acre park, a pool and gym, and three landmark towers home to ultra-luxe penthouses overlooking the degree views, each of the property's 89 homes incorporates the location's industrial heritage into its design. Residents will have access to a 24-hour valet, enjoy access to a restaurant, a concierge service and a range of incredible health and wellness facilities including an infrared sauna, ice plunge pool and hydrotherapy treatment. All you need and more. thedockfen.com

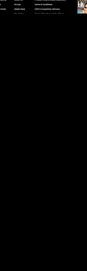
Postmark, Farringdon, London

Jointly the final phase of the gorgeous Lucent development launched in June, its brand-new Mailboxes Centre has just been unveiled. Serving as a hub for residents, it's home to a concierge service, a residents' lounge, a state-of-the-art facility to receive parcels, a workshop and more, even a treatment room and gym – and it boasts proudly upmarket the development's residents will have access to all of the above. All you're looking for a home with unique heritage. Postmark occupies the site of the historic Mount Pleasant Royal Mail sorting office. From £1.2 postmarklondon.com

Three Kings, Mayfair

Standing proudly on Mayfair's only private gated street is this boutique collection of eight handsome residences, comprising of five penthouses and six apartments. Within each property you'll find bespoke, architect-led design and luxurious finishes throughout, including Calacatta Gold marble bathrooms, fantastic sunny communal terraces, private lifts with fluted marble trims and a 24/7 health hook. A integrated feature by the end Fridge. If you're looking for a home with unique heritage, look no further. From £2 threekingsmayfair.com

The OWO, Whitehall



The historic deterioration is being transformed into something truly special. expect a flagship Raffles hotel, 85 branded private residences and nine exclusive penthouses. Also, there's a private members' club and a dining club, such an incredible area, this is a development like no other. theowolondon

The Founding at Canada Water

Overlooked by sustainable property firm British Land, The Founding in Canada Water's brand-new flagship development, is home to 180 apartments and a 10-storey office building. Residents will have access to a concierge service and, by 2019, the development is set to host a new Asda store, a cinema, a gym, a health centre and a nursery. Also include a new town square and high street. thefounding.co.uk

Promoted Post | Contains affiliate links | Ad Feature

The Knightsbridge Estate

From shops and restaurants to elegant office spaces, the Knightsbridge Estate has it all. Close to Apple and Burberry's Hampton's flagship stores, it's also a piece of the capital's finest new residences, with interiors designed by Tara Bernerd. Residents will have access to a concierge service and guest rooms. theknightsbridgeestate.com

Chelsea Barracks

Luxury open-plan apartments occupy the upper floors of the one St Ann's Square building, while the ground floor is home to a host of fashion, homeware and retail spaces. You'll find a number of delightful spaces on the wider West Wing, including a contemporary art gallery, a boutique hotel, a private dining room, a health club and a 24-hour concierge service. chelseabarracks.com

Chelsea Creek by St George

Be a convenient member of the Berkeley Group, it's home to both the some of the most impressive interiors and regeneration projects in London. At Chelsea Creek, you'll find elegant riverside apartments boasting access to incredible amenities including a gym, a swimming pool, a spa, a residents' lounge and a concierge service. Also, there's a private dining room for those special occasions. Want to find out more? Or you want to? Head to chelseacreek.com | berkeleygroup.co.uk

One Thames Quay, Canary Wharf

Another Canary Wharf offering, One Thames Quay is an extraordinary development comprising 200 luxury homes, 10 of which are incredible penthouses, energy systems, its residences will not rely on any fossil fuels for heating or cooling. Equally as exciting are the buildings incredible amenities, including a residents' gym, a swimming pool, the rooftop terrace and more. onethamesquay.co.uk

Lancer Square, Kensington

The regal development stands just a stone's throw from Kensington Palace. The Lancer Square site was originally part of Kensington Palace grounds and was developed in the 1860s. Today, it's been transformed into a collection of contemporary residences which fuse elegance and history of the area. Designed by multi-award-winning firm Squire & Partners and with interiors by Martin Brudnizki Design Studio, Lancer Square will offer future residents incredible amenities, including a concierge service, a residents' lounge and a private dining room. lancersquare.co.uk

Powerhouse, Chelsea Waterfront

Offering a family with world-class living? This London estate that unites around the London underground as standing on the site of a powerhouse. In addition of 200 luxury apartments overlooking the River Thames. You'll find bespoke cabinets and marble bathrooms throughout, as well as a residents' gym, a spa, a swimming pool and elegant contemporary interiors throughout. Space is also set to be enhanced thanks to the Church of Thames – the a development the Church of England. powerhousecollection.com

Broadoaks Park, West Byfleet, Surrey

Built by Stanhope, Surrey's premier luxury house builder, this exclusive development in West Byfleet comprises seven magnificent homes, ranging from new-build apartments to terraced houses – not to mention the reimagined Grade II listed Broadoaks Mansion. From £750,000. broadoakspark.co.uk

Sponsored Content

The Most Luxurious Homes You Can Buy in Central London for Under £1 Million

A Look Inside the Most Luxurious Apartments in Battersea

Inside the Most Luxurious Homes You Can Buy in Fulham

Recommended by

DON'T MISS AN ISSUE

Subscribe to The Cultivist and receive a free digital copy of our latest issue, delivered straight to your inbox every month.

SUBSCRIBE

CULTIVATING

Sign up today to receive our newsletters and enjoy free access to the most original editors on offers.

Email address

SIGN UP

By signing up you confirm you have read and agree to our terms and conditions.

DON'T MISS AN ISSUE

Subscribe to The Cultivist and receive a free digital copy of our latest issue, delivered straight to your inbox every month.

SUBSCRIBE

Sponsored Content

The Most Luxurious Homes You Can Buy in Central London for Under £1 Million

A Look Inside the Most Luxurious Apartments in Battersea

Inside the Most Luxurious Homes You Can Buy in Fulham

Recommended by